

Civil Family Court

Civil Marriage

A civil marriage is the lawful union of a man and woman solemnized as a civil contract without religious ceremony. It is based on non-religious rules and is regulated by Article 4 and 5 of the Civil Marriage Law No. 14 of 2021.

Express Civil Marriage

This service allows you to obtain a civil marriage with 24 working hours following submission of your request

Prenuptial Agreement

First, it is important to be aware that having a marriage agreement is not mandatory. However, should you wish to submit a marriage agreement, you should submit it with the civil marriage application as a supporting document. There is an additional fee of 950 AED for the marriage agreement to be notarized.

Civil will

As defined by Article 1 of Law No. 14 of 2021, a Will is a document prepared by an expatriate stating how they would like their assets to be distributed upon their passing.

For a civil will to be recognized as legally valid, it must be 'registered'. You can do this by submitting the relevant application and a copy of the Will To the ADJD Civil Wills Department.
